
Above male has children with two different individuals. The dotted line represents a non-married union and the solid line represents a marriage

Circle = female
Square = male

-Shaded circle/square represent individuals with the trait.

Horizontal line represents a union between individuals.

Vertical line that extends beneath horizontal union line represents children.